loan may be considered to have been completely discharged. The legal lien on the properties may continue ml 30/4/10.

Although government have given these properties to Saraswatacumma & her sons during their life it does not follow that they acceded to withholding of the balance that may be yet due. What has been realised by sale should be taken in adjustment of the loan and the balance carried forward as due by the debtors. Put Case, it seems, on Financial Advrs after crediting what may be realised by sale of these properties after the death of the present holders. Till then the accounts have to remain open

Mr Raffray now came. In the other file Mrs Saraswatiamma States that she has liquidated the amount of the principal in full. As for the transactions ~~before~~ during the Govt Questions the figures given by Mrs Saraswathamma are less than the figures of the D/R of Rs 630 odd, while as to the amts received by sale the figures of the D/C have been verified & the same. The net result is that 2141 Rs 10 Ps is still due on account of the principal of the amt of 1277 being last paid & also credited to the amount. ~~In other words out of the~~ principal, there will still be a balance of Rs 864 one. ~~pie as per above~~ without reckoning interest as per statement.
